Then Agrippa faid unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself, then Paul ftretched forth the hand, and answered for himself; 2 I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am accused of the Jews: 3 Especially, betouching all the things whereof I am accured of the Jews: 3 Eppecially, because I know the to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews; wherefore I befeech thee to hear me patiently. 4 My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews, 5 Which knew me from the beginning, (if they would testify) that after the most straightfact of our religion I lived a Pharifee. 6 And now I stand and am judged for the hope of the promise made of God unto our fathers:

That which promise our taylors instantly. God unto our fathers: 7 Unto which promife our twelve tribes inflantly ferving God day and night hope to come, for which hopes fake, king Agrippa, I am accufed of the Jews. 8 Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you that God should raise the dead? 9 I verily thought with myfelf that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth. 10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and, when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them. 11 And I punished them oft in every fynagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme: and being exce-
